✠ OUR WEEKLY OFFERING ✠

Notes from Father O

1. Congratulations to Max Schuttler for receiving his First Holy Communion last Sunday. May you always have a strong faith in the Eucharist
2. This Thursday is the Feast of the Ascension of the Lord. It is a holyday of obligation and so we have a responsibility to get to mass either Wednesday night or Thursday some time. The time of the masses are in the bulletin.
3. The second graders will make their First Holy Communion Sunday May 13th. They are to be greeters in front of the Church by 8:40 am and then walk into Church with their parents at the beginning of mass. They are to receive communion with their parents on each side of them and then walk out with their parents at the end of mass and go in front of the altar for any pictures they would like to have taken.
4. Next week there will be a collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign. This campaign connects people with Christ, here and around the world in developing countries, through the internet, television, radio and the Catholic Voice. 50% of the funds collected remain in our diocese to fund local communication efforts. Your support helps spread the gospel message. Envelopes are in your boxes. Be as generous as you can be.
